

Profession

- Consumer/carer
 Clinician
 Researcher
 Funder
 Policy Maker
 Other

Work setting

- Academic
 Clinical
 Other

Contact: S.M.Kerr@gcal.ac.uk 0141 331 8374

About Susan Kerr PhD MSc (Med. Sci.) BA RN HV

Susan Kerr is a Reader in the School of Nursing, Midwifery and Community Health at Glasgow Caledonian University. Susan worked previously as a health visitor and practice nurse.

Contributions to HealthQWest

- Director of HealthQWest Graduate School
- Member of the HealthQWest Consortium Management Board
- Member of the HealthQWest Executive Group
- Member of the Community & Public Health Research Community

Publications since joining HealthQWest in June 2006.

- Schofield I, Kerr SM, Tolson D (2007) An exploration of the smoking related health beliefs of older people with COPD. Journal of Clinical Nursing. In Press [IF 1.43].
- Kerr SM, Watson HE, Tolson D, Lough M, Brown M (2007) Smoking cessation in later life: an exploration of the knowledge, attitudes and practice of members of the primary care team who work with older people who smoke. Primary Health Care Research and Development. 8(1): 68-79 [IF=N/A]
- Watson H, McLaren W, Kerr SM (2007) Measuring staff attitudes to working with drug users: the psychometric analysis of a tool. Addiction. 102: 206-215 [IF=4.088].
- Kerr SM, Watson HE, Tolson D, Lough M, Brown M (2006) Smoking after the age of 65 years: an exploration of older current and former smokers' views on smoking, stopping smoking, and smoking cessation resources and services. Health & Social Care in the Community. 14(6): 572-582 [IF=1.010].

Other current activities

- Elected member of the Scottish Tobacco Control Alliance Co-ordinating Group
- Member of the Scottish Tobacco Control Alliance Researchers' Group
- Member of the Management Committee of the Nursing Council on Alcohol
- Member of the Caledonian Graduate Centre Board

Special Interests

Smoking/smoking cessation; alcohol consumption; health promoting role of health professionals; health improvement; primary care